

'Superior Performer' Awards: Self-Nomination Form

Each year, TFPF members are encouraged to apply for a TFPF 'Superior Performer' award. TFPF members must report their progress regularly in order to be recognized as an active participant. If you believe your facility deserves one of these awards, please tell us which award you are applying for and why you believe you deserve it.

Additional Information:

Awards Process: Award nominations can be submitted throughout the year and are subject to deadlines established each year. The awards program is a self-nominating program. As your efforts may not be known to the awards selection committee, it is important to describe your achievements with this form. Winners of the TFPF 'Superior Performer' Awards will receive a site visit from a TFPF staff member or volunteer for verification.

Trash Summit: For recognition at the Annual Trash Summit, self-nomination forms must be submitted six weeks prior to the event. Details on the Trash Summit can be found at www.TrashSummit.org.

How to Submit: Submit this form and any extra sheets with nomination details to:
