

Watch Plastic Wars

Why is the plastic industry expanding even though there is a lot of public backlash?

Why is plastic recycling not a viable solution to the plastic problem?

How is our plastic problem affecting developing nations?

Why is plastic the preferred choice for packaging for food and household items?

What plastic types can be recycled in your county (you'll have to look this one up)?

Name three things from the documentary that shocked you.